Hello Kids! Ask your parents to help you find and learn this Bible verse!

Lam 3:25

Hello kids! Today we are going to learn more about patience and perseverance. “Come on God! Hurry up!” Is that how you feel sometimes? One thing you need to remember is that you are not the only one in God’s plan. Your wants may not be so good for everyone else around you. Only God knows the right timing that works out good for everyone. This is where your faith is tested. “Okay God I can have patience” or “Okay God I can get through this suffering” with God’s help of course. Know that God is with you all the time. When you doubt, stop and think. “That’s right, I know God, You are with me. I can wait this out.” I myself have these conversations with God even as an adult. You have to just keep learning and applying His word to your life. His words will come to you quicker as time goes on. This is the job of the Holy Spirit. He will guide you, console you, and even wait with you. In these situations you also have to remember how much suffering Jesus Christ went through in His life here on earth. As God He had never experienced it. It was new to Him as well as it is to you. Study His word and your teachers or parents will be able to tell you about His life. God was with Him all the way except for the hours He paid for all our sins. God is with you through your suffering experiences to the very end of it. This waiting or persevering doesn't mean we just sit with a sour face. You continue to live your life with an outward smile. How? Study the word of God, obey your parents, do your chores, help your friends, do your school work, and play with your friends. This brings that glory to God when He sees you wait. You too will find that joy that He promises you.
